

Best Practice to Support Recovery of Children Who Have Experienced Sexual Harm

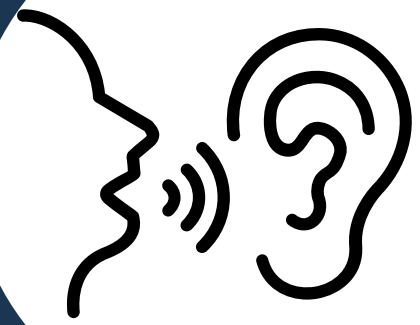

Ensure constant supervision and monitoring of all children and adult interactions.

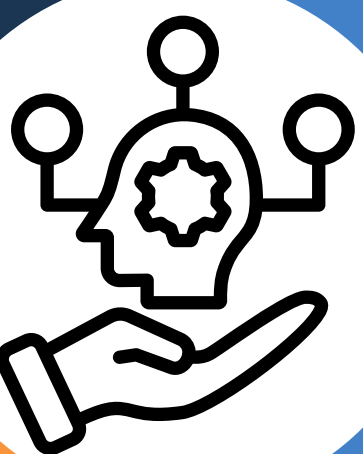

Implement clear rules on privacy zones and practices.

Enforce clear boundaries on expectations regarding personal space.

No play behind closed doors, no hiding, and no secrets.

Co-monitoring of all internet, social media, communication and screens - Clear content governance.

